FCC TO HOLD DIGITAL TELEVISION CONSUMER EDUCATION WORKSHOP FOCUSED ON DTV CONVERTER BOXES ON JUNE 19, 2008

Washington, DC -- The Federal Communications Commission has announced that, on Thursday, June 19, 2008, it will hold a Digital Television (DTV) Consumer Education Workshop. The Workshop will begin at 10:00 a.m. and end at approximately 2:00 p.m., and will address issues related to DTV converter boxes for analog television sets that receive signals over-the-air. Specifically, the Workshop will explain how to connect DTV converter boxes to analog television sets and will discuss the converter boxes' features, including closed captioning and parental controls. Several manufacturers and vendors will display their DTV converter boxes and be available to answer questions about them.

The Workshop will be held at FCC Headquarters, 445 12th Street, SW, Washington, DC, in the Commission Meeting Room, and will be webcast live from the FCC's website at www.fcc.gov/realaudio. A complete agenda for the Workshop will be released soon.
